Angela Bizzarri

Mason High School

This running phenom was the only junior last year voted as one of 6 finalists for the LaRosa's Female Athlete of the Year Award. Angela has won 5 Ohio Div. I state championships – 3 in track (3,200 run) and 2 in cross country. Last year she was named the area's Sportswoman of the Year by the local Women's Sports Association, Cincinnati's Track Runner of the Year (Enquirer) and has been featured in Sports Illustrated. Her sophomore year, she helped lead the Comets to the Ohio Div. I girls track team championship. Also a superstar student (4.35 GPA), she is a member of National Honor Society and plays flute in the concert band.

She holds numerous school running records, and will run next year at the U. of Illinois, where she plans to study biomedical engineering. Her favorite entertainer is Reese Witherspoon, her favorite athlete is Lance Armstrong and her most-like-to-meet is George Washington.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Angela is committed to achieving excellence in everything she does, including her school work and training. She has always successfully balanced these with family and other extracurricular activities." – Tony Affatato, Track Coach
