

LaRosa's MVP of the Week

LAROSAS
MVP.COM

Andrew Marty

Wyoming High School

One of the area's elite pro-style QBs and team captain, Wyoming senior Andrew Marty fought back from a junior year season-ending injury to lead the Cowboys this year to an undefeated 10-0 regular season record and the CHL league title.

During the regular season, Andrew led the CHL in passing yards (2,487) and passing TDs (34) plus had 7 TDs rushing. His 6 TD passes vs. Deer Park tied a school record for TD passes in a game. Andrew continued his QB mastery in the first round of the Div.IV regional playoffs last Friday night. In a 59-0 win vs. Chillicothe Unioto, Andrew passed for 254 yards and five touchdowns to keep the Cowboys undefeated season rolling at 11-0.

Andrew also plays baseball for the Cowboys and last season on the mound he struck out 26 batters in 25.2 innings and had a 1.44 ERA.

A good student active in community service, Andrew will play football collegiately at Northwestern University.

His favorite athlete is Tim Tebow, favorite entertainer is Will Ferrell, favorite book is Training Camp by John Gordon and favorite movie is Forrest Gump.

Name: Andrew Marty

GRADUATING YEAR: 2017

SCHOOL Wyoming High School

GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT:

Battling back from season-ending injury junior year to later receive an offer to play football in the BIG 10

BIRTHDATE: 5/19/99

HEIGHT: 6'5"-215 lbs.

RESIDENCE: Batavia

PARENTS: Jon & Kendall

FUTURE GOAL: Play in the NFL

"Andrew exhibits all the attributes you want in a leader of the team. He is a tremendous worker and is dedicated to getting better everyday! His leadership, energy and competitiveness is infectious to his teammates!"

-Aaron Hancock, Football Coach

November 8, 2016