Kyla Oldacre

Mason High School

Mason senior Kyla Oldacre is a 6'6" center and a McDonalds All-American who scored 1,000+ points in her career and will play her college basketball at the University of Miami (FL).

Kyla was a two-year player for the Comets, having transferred from Princeton after her sophomore season. She had an outstanding senior season at Mason. She was fourth in the GMC in scoring (15.3 points per game), second in field goal percentage (55.9%), second in rebounds (9.3 per game) and first in blocks (3.2 per game). She helped lead the Comets to a GMC championship, a district title and a regional title before falling in the Ohio Div. I state finals' game. The Comets finished 15-1 in league play, 27-3 over all.

Her top games this season included those vs. Sycamore (27 points-14 rebounds), Springboro (27 points-16 rebounds), Massillon Jackson (21 points-20 rebounds) and Mount Notre Dame (21 points-10 rebounds). She had 13 double-double games on the season.

In addition to being a McDonalds All-American, she was named first team all-GMC for the third time, first-team SWO District, first-team all-city (Enquirer) and first-team all-Ohio. She also plays for the All Ohio Express club team.

Her favorite athlete and most-like-to-meet is Liz Cambage and her favorite entertainer is Megan Thee Stallion. A good student who is active in community service, in her spare time, she loves to sing, play Roblox and "dance around the locker room."
