Ally Cordes

Wyoming High School

Wyoming high school senior outside hitter Ally Cordes, a four-year varsity player and a volleyball All-American, has made volleyball history, being the first person at the school and in the Cincinnati Hills League to surpass 1,000 kills in a career. She now has over 1,500 career kills!

Not only is Ally the all-time leader in single-season and career kills in school history and in the CHL, she also has greatly contributed to a special Wyoming volleyball program that has won an impressive thirteen conference championships in a row, including a co-championship this season with Taylor High School! The Cowboys were an undefeated 14-0 in league play both her senior and junior years and finished as regional semifinalists last season. At one point, Wyoming had won 152 CHL matches in a row before being upset in a match by Taylor.

Her junior year, Ally racked up 450 kills (led the CHL), 201 digs, 46 blocks (fourth in the CHL) and 44 aces and was named CHL Player of the Year for the second time, first-team SWO District for the second time, first-team all-city Div. II (Enquirer) and first-team all-Ohio Div. II. She has put up strong stats this season, too. In 72 games, she had a league-leading 356 kills, plus 176 digs, 44 blocks and 64 service aces. She was once again named CHL Player of the Year this season. Ally also plays volleyball on the Tri-State Elite 18 Blue club team.

A super student who is very involved in community service, Ally will play volleyball next season at Samford University in Homewood, Alabama. Her favorite athlete is Cassidy Lichtman, favorite entertainer is AJR, favorite book is The Great Gatsby, favorite movie is Dr. Strange and most-like-to-meet is Victoria Garrick (CEO of The Hidden Opponent).
