

Jordan Marshall

Moeller High School

One of Ohio's elite running backs for 2024 is Moeller High School's senior Jordan Marshall, who, this season, became the Crusaders' all-time leading rusher in school history, running for 4,100+ yards in his super career.

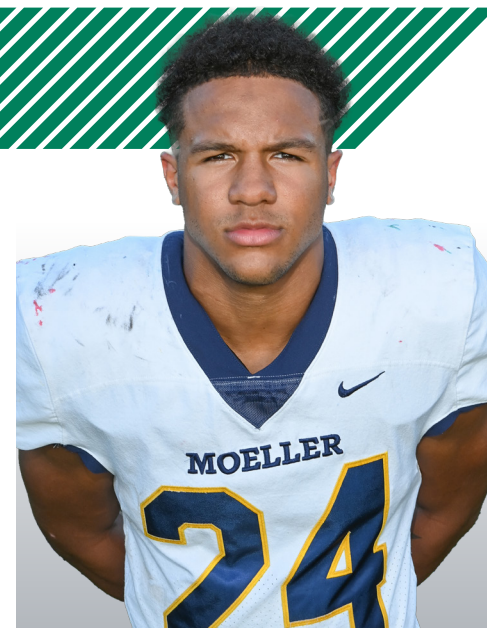

Jordan entered this season having had a memorable junior campaign when he was named a MaxPrep Junior All-American. He was the top-ranked running back in Ohio and the GCL South's leading rusher. He rambled for 1,961 yards and 30 touchdowns and caught 19 passes for 364 yards and four touchdowns for the Crusaders (13-2) who were Division I Regional champs and Ohio state semifinalist for a second straight season.

His talent was recognized by the many honors he received. He was GCL South Player of the Year, Cincinnati Div. I Offensive Player of the Year, Southwest Ohio Div. I Player of the Year, Ohio Div. I Co-Offensive Player of the Year, Ohio Gatorade Player of the Year and a finalist for Ohio Mr. Football. He also competed in track for the Crusaders and was first-team all-GCL South.

He has had a good senior year with more than 1,100 rushing yards in the first eight games. Against Ben Davis High School (IN), he rushed for 120 yards and three touchdowns. He rambled for 160 yards and three TDs vs. Center Grove (IN) and ran for 113 yards and three TDs vs. Elder. In a win vs. 11-time state champion Cleveland St. Ignatius, he ran for 220 yards and two touchdowns.

Jordan had numerous collegiate offers and has committed to play football at the University of Michigan.

A good student with a 3.97 GPA, Jordan is active in community service. His favorite athlete is Saquan Barkley, favorite entertainer is Drake or James Bond, favorite book is The IF in Life, favorite movie is Casino Royale and most-like-to-meet is Bruno Mars. In his spare time, Jordan enjoys skiing, hanging out with family, and working with numbers and math class.

"Jordan Marshall amazes me every day! He's not only a tremendous football player, but a phenomenal young man. His athletic ability is obviously off the charts, but his football IQ and understanding of the game are the best I've been around. Jordan exemplifies the definition of a student-athlete with his success in the classroom, his presence in the community, and his athletic accomplishments. He is a TRUE Man of Moeller."
