

LaRosa's MVP of the Week

LAROSAS MVP.COM

Lesslee Mason-Cox

Princeton High School

Last June this senior was one of 36 players nationally invited to play in 2005 USA Basketball Youth Development Festival at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs. As a sophomore at Princeton, she averaged 15 points a game and was named 1st team all-city. Last season as a junior at Winton Woods, Lesslee averaged a double-double (20 points-12 rebounds) in leading the team to a 20-3 record, the FAVC-Buckeye and sectional championships, and the district runner-up spot. She was named 1st team all-city for the second time, SWO District 16 Player of the Year and 1st team all-state. This season, USA Today has rated her the 7th best player in the nation. She has scored 24 points (11 rebounds) vs. Milford and 22 vs. Lakota East. Lesslee will play next season at Ohio State University. Her favorite entertainer is Lil' Wayne; her favorite athlete is Carmello Anthony and her most-like-to-meet is Jesus.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Lesslee is a winner. She goes all out in games and her teammates follow her lead. Her high school accomplishments speak for themselves." -- Jill Phillips, Basketball Coach

Lesslee Mason-Cox Princeton High School

SPORT: Basketball

GRADUATING YR.: 2006

GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT: Scholarship to Ohio State.

BIRTHDATE: 2-25-88

HEIGHT: 6'1"

RESIDENCE: Evendale

PARENTS: Tina Mason & Randy Cox

BIGGEST INFLUENCE: "My mom."

FUTURE GOAL: "Graduate from college."

January 3, 2006