Shea Harry

Ross High School

One of Cincinnati's top baseball players, this senior catcher, wearing number 14, has been a starter for the Rams for 4 years. He hits .455 with 35 RBIs as a sophomore, and his junior season was one for the books – he hit .541 with 53 RBIs, 8 doubles, 2 triples, 16 home runs and 24 stolen bases. His 16 home runs was a Cincinnati and school record for most home runs in a season. He was a big part in the Rams successful 23-4 season and FAVC co-championship. Twice Shea has been named FAVC Cardinal Player of the Year and 1st team all-city. Active in community service, Shea plays for the Midland Redskins during the summer, and he has not yet committed to a college. His favorite entertainer is Dave Chappell, his favorite athlete is Pete Rose and his most-like-to-meet is Johnny Bench.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Shea obviously has God-given ability. What I believe sets him apart from other good ballplayers is his work ethic during the season and especially in the off-season. He has an internal drive to be the best." – Jason Rettinger, Baseball Coach
