Jordan Kramer

Highlands High School

NKY's rushing and scoring leader, this explosive senior running back earlier this year set the school record for single game rushing -- 324 yards in a win vs. Conner. A team captain, Jordan is a threat every time he touches the ball, as evidenced by the fact that he racked up 210 all-purpose yards and 4 TDs vs. Dixie Heights and 203 yards rushing-5 TDs vs. South Oldham. As a junior, he accounted for 16 TDs and 1,635 total yards in rushing, receiving, punt returns and kickoff returns and earned all-conference honors. Also a track runner, Jordan runs the 100, 4x100 relay and competes in the long jump, an event in which he was last year's district champion. He finished 3rd at regionals and 7th at state (19' 3 3/4"). An honor roll student active in community service, Jordan's favorite entertainer is Will Ferrell, his favorite athlete is Ladainian Tomlinson and his most-like-to-meet is Barry Sanders.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Every time Jordan runs the ball it's like the WEBN fireworks finale. There's a big explosion and everybody says 'Wow!'" -- Dale Mueller, Football Coach
