

Bo Cordell

Indian Hill High School

This senior QB threw for an impressive 3,334 yards (34 TDs) last season in leading the Indians to a 10-3 record and their 4th straight CHL title. In his career, Bo has thrown for 5,405 yards and 56 TDs. He has earned numerous honors, including last year being named CHL Player of the Year, Cincinnati Div. II Player of the Year, SWO district Co-Offensive Player of the Year, and he was named 1st team all-state. "Bo is a student of the game of football," says Coach Kevin Siple. "He studies very hard to prepare himself for each and every game." Active in community service and a member of the school's jazz band, Bo is also a good baseball player, starting 2nd baseman since his freshman year. His favorite athlete and most-like-to-meet is Peyton Manning, his favorite entertainer is Will Ferrell and favorite movie is Friday Night Lights.

Bo Cordell

Indian Hill High School

SPORT(S): Football - Baseball

GRADUATING YR.: 2009

BIRTHDATE: 2-21-91

HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 6'-2"-200 lbs.

RESIDENCE: Kenwood

PARENTS: John & Cindy

BIGGEST INFLUENCE:
"My father-always keeps on top of my game."

FUTURE GOAL:
Graduate college then business (sales or marketing)

COACH'S QUOTE -- "The reason Bo is so effective is that he works extremely hard at his craft, he prepares to win. Bo is a natural leader and was born to play the quarterback position. He understands the role of the quarterback and does everything in his power to make his team better. Bo Cordell plays the quarterback position the way it is supposed to be played." – Kevin Siple, Football Coach

September 2, 2008