

Justin Youtsey

Beechwood High School

Beechwood senior Justin Youtsey is a 2-time All-American diver and the reigning Kentucky state diving champion, receiving the title his sophomore and junior years. He was the only male diver in Kentucky named All-American last year. Justin is also a 3-time regional champion, and last season was named 1st team all-Northern Kentucky and 1st team all-state. Setting school records along the way, Justin has been selected to compete this summer in the USA Olympic Trials. "Justin's excellent work ethic and drive to constantly improve and challenge himself has positioned him as one of the top high school divers in the nation," says coach Allyson Heger. Justin also competed in baseball and swimming for the Tigers. A National Honor Society student active in community service, Justin will dive next year at Auburn University. His favorite athlete is John Wall, favorite entertainer is Wiz Khalifa, favorite book is The Kite Runner, and most-like-to-meet is Kenny Chesney.

Justin Youtsey

Beechwood High School

SPORT(S): Diving

GRADUATING YEAR: 2012

GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT:
Qualifying for the Olympic Trials in 2012

BIRTHDATE: 3-1-94

HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 5'8"-145 lbs.

RESIDENCE: Fort Mitchell, Ky.

PARENTS: Thomas & Cynthia

FUTURE GOAL: Win an NCAA Championship with Auburn

COACH'S QUOTE - "Justin is a very strong and powerful diver who will continue to develop at one of the top diving colleges in the nation, Auburn University. His All-American status will definitely continue at the collegiate level." - Allyson Heger, Dive Coach