Logan Woods

Fairfield High School

Cast your eyes northward from the City of Cincinnati and you'll find a talented high school basketball player in Fairfield senior guard Logan Woods, who eclipsed 1,000 points scored in his great varsity career and, this past season, for the second time was named honorable mention all-Ohio. He holds the school records for most assists in a career and most assists in a game.

Logan's play this season helped the Indians, who were defending GMC champions, find themselves once again atop the GMC standings with a 23-5 over all record and 14-2 in league play. Averaging 13.6 points per game, his top games included games vs. La Salle (24 points), St. Xavier (21 points), Wayne (20 points) and Middletown (19 points). The Wright State University signee helped Fairfield win a District championship, its first District title in 10 years, by scoring 19 points with five three-pointers in a win vs. Walnut Hills. The team was Div. I Regional runners-up, losing to Centerville, and Logan was named GMC Player of the Year.

His junior year, Logan averaged 16.1 points a game while contributing 3.3 rebounds per game and two assists per game. He was named first team all-GMC, second team all-city, second team all-SWO District, and honorable mention all-Ohio.

Active in community service, Logan also plays basketball for the Midwest Basketball Club team and next season will play collegiately up the road at Wright State University.

His favorite athlete is LeBron James, favorite entertainer is Kevin Hart, favorite book is My Brother's Side, favorite movie is Black Panther and most-like-to-meet is Deion Sanders.
