

Ru Mills

Woodward High School

The Woodward Bulldogs have an all-star basketball player in senior Ru Mills, CMAC's leading scorer averaging about 24 points a game. Double-digit scoring games this season include games vs. Taft (35 points), Philadelphia Father Judge (34 points), Hughes (28 points) and Rowan City High School (25 points).

Last year as a junior, Ru put up some impressive stats: He averaged 19.1 points a game, which was third most in the CMAC. He was also second in the league in field goal percentage at 59.3%, plus he averaged 3.8 assists, 2.6 steals and 1.3 blocks a game.

Ru had numerous double-digit games last season; in fact, he scored in double figures in all but two games all season long for the Bulldogs, who finished with an overall 19-5 record, 7-3 in league play.

His double-digit scoring games as a junior included scoring 28 points vs. St. Xavier, 27 points vs. Western Hills, and 26 points vs. Taft. He was named first team all-CMAC Red, first-team all-city, first-team Div. II SWO District, first-team all-region and second-team all state. He was also a finalist for Cincinnati Basketball Player of the Year by the Cincinnati High School Sports Awards program. He plans to play collegiately but has not yet selected a college.

Active in community service, Ru also plays basketball for the Wildcat Select/Cincinnati Royals club team. In his spare time, he enjoys riding dirt bikes and playing video games.

His favorite athlete and most-like-to-meet is Kevin Durant, favorite entertainer is Kevin Hart and favorite movie is Like Mike
