Emily Brunemann

A 5-time swimming All-American, Emily set a national YMCA record in the long-course 400 meter freestyle this summer. A four-year varsity swimmer, she helped her team win a state championship in the 400 freestyle relay in 2003, and has earned all-region honors three times, all-state honors once and was Northern Kentucky's Female Swimmer of the Year as a sophomore. Last year she won 4 regional titles and was state runner-up in the 500 freestyle. Her club team is the Anderson Barracudas. Holder of numerous school and regional swimming records, Emily is also an academic honor student who is active in community service, this year she has been nominated for the Wendy's High School Heisman award. Emily will swim next year for the University of Michigan. Her favorite athlete is Janet Evans, and her most-like-to-meet is Reese Witherspoon.

Coach's Quote -- "Emily is a very motivated, hard-working, fun-loving and dedicated student-athlete who knows what it takes to be a champion in life."

-- Heather Stolz, Swimming Coach

In 1973, a fire destroyed the first pizzeria on Boudinot Ave. The next morning local high school students volunteered their time to assist in the cleanup. The entire pizzeria was reopened in an incredible five ☐ weeks. As a small gesture of ☐ Buddy's appreciation to those students, the Buddy LaRosa's Sports ad debuted in local newspapers later that year.
