

LaRosa's MVP of the Week

LAROSAS MVP.COM

Doug Matthews

This senior two-sport (tennis and basketball) star owns a Division I Ohio state championship title -- last year, Doug, along with partner Matt Allare, won the Ohio state high school doubles championship after finishing as sectional champs and district runnersup. A 4-year starter, Doug earned honors as 1st team all-city and 1st team all-state. He was named team MVP and FAVC conference Player of the Year, and three times has been named 1st team all-conference and all-district. He was also a tennis state qualifier as a sophomore. He will play tennis next season at Xavier University. Also a good basketball player, Doug has been a 2-year varsity starter at forward. This season he averaged 13 points-5 rebounds-2 steals per game and was named team co-MVP, 1st team all-conference and honorable mention all-city and all-Southwest Ohio district. Active in community service, Doug's favorite athlete is Reggie Miller, his favorite entertainer is David Chappelle and his most-like-to-meet is Andy Roddick.

Coach's Quote: "Doug is truly a dedicated athlete, as is indicated by his success in two sports. He works hard in practice and match play. His competitive will is unmatched and he truly loves to compete." – Steve Contardi, Tennis Coach
