Megan Sturm

A senior and 3-year varsity tennis player for the Pandas, Megan was gunning for a regional and Kentucky state doubles title. She made it to the state quarterfinals last year and has won back-to-back regional championships in doubles with partner Meghan Shaughnessy, a junior this year. The partners were undefeated in regular season play last season. The regional doubles championship helped the Pandas win the team regional tennis title for the 8th straight year. For her play, Megan was named 1st team all-Northern Kentucky and Northern Kentucky's Co-Player of the Year in doubles. She and her partner were regional runners-up this year. Active in community service, Megan has been class co-president both her junior and senior years. Her favorite entertainer is Jim Carrey, her favorite athlete is Andy Roddick and her most-like-to-meet is Julia Roberts. Megan will be attending the University of Dayton in the fall but has not yet decided whether she will play tennis at the next level.

Coach's Quote: "Every coach should have a spirited player like Megan. She is a leader, a team player, coachable, and has a positive attitude and work ethic. Her lethal serves and powerful ground strokes and volleys are tough to beat. Megan is a pure delight to have on the team."--Kara Molony-Hussey, Tennis Coach
