Heather Hassloch

Heritage Academy

A 2-sport star, this senior basketball center once scored a school-record 48 points in a game vs. Bellevue, and will score more than 2,000 points in her great career. This year, she scored 30 vs. Ludlow and 24 vs. Grant County. Last year, she averaged a double-double – her 28 points and 15 rebounds a game led Northern Kentucky. Top games last year included 43 vs. Portland, 40 vs. Beth Haven, 38 vs. Villa Madonna and 36 vs. Evangel. She has been a

NKAC all-star 3 times, and named 3 times to the district all-tournament team. Also a great volleyball player and 4-year varsity starter, Heather had over 100 kills this season and was named to the NKAC and district all-tournament teams. An academic all-state player who is active in community service, Heather's favorite athlete is Chad Johnson, and her most-like-to-meet is Jennifer Aniston. She has not yet selected a college.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Heather is a student-athlete who is aware of her position and responsibility on and off the court. She is a team player who wants others to succeed." – Howard Davis, Basketball Coach
