Kelsa Mueller

Highlands High School

Highlands senior Kelsa Mueller knows about winning state championships! Kelsa has been part of 7 Kentucky state titles! She won 3 Class AA team titles in cross country. She was an integral part of 3 relay team titles (3,200 meter relay) in track. And, her sophomore year, she was the Kentucky Class AA individual champion in the 800 meter run (2:24.07). She was the regional champ in the 800 meter her junior year. Kelsa has won one more state championship than her dad, Dale, who won six state titles at Highlands in football, (one as a player, five as head coach.) Kelsa also swam for the Bluebirds for one year. A fantastic student with a 4.04 GPA (Cum Laude Society, National Honor Society), Kelsa is active in community service. Her favorite entertainer is Adam Sandler, favorite athlete is Rudi Johnson and her most-like-to-meet is Johnny Depp. She will attend Murray State.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Kelsa has an internal drive that gives her great discipline to accomplish any task, athletic as well as academic. This is rarely seen in her peers." -- Terri Mayhew, Track Coach
