

Taylor Bove

McAuley High School

All around sports' all-star Taylor Bove is graduating McAuley High School as the first athlete to play three sports all four years for the Lady Mohawks.

In track & field, Taylor holds the school record in the discus throw and is the reigning district champion, winning it in back-to-back years. She is also the GGCL champ in the 200 dash. She was named 2nd team GGCL Scarlet her junior year.

Also a 1st team all-conference and all-city volleyball player, Taylor, an outside hitter, tallied 280 kills, 158 digs, 53 blocks and 34 aces this past season. In basketball, she averaged 8.3 points-3.7 rebounds per game and was named 2nd team all-conference.

"I've watched her throughout her career compete in both volleyball and basketball and, like track, I'm sure the coaches found a way to play her in every spot on the floor as well," says Track Coach Ron Russo. "Taylor is truly a unique and special athlete."

Active in community service, her favorite athlete and most-like-to-meet is Dwight Howard. Her favorite entertainer is Kevin Hart.
