

Sean Fausz

Campbell County High School

Nationally ranked senior Sean Fausz is a two-time Kentucky state wrestling champion for the Camels. He recently won the state title in the 138 lb. weight class, following up his state title last season in the 132-weight class. Sean went 53-2 this year and in his junior year was an undefeated 62-0 with 37 pins and was named NKY Co-Wrestler of the Year. He has 287 wins in his high school career.

Sean holds four school wrestling records and at one point had won a remarkable 82 straight matches. This season, he led the Camels to a 7th straight NKAC championship and a 2nd straight Kentucky state runner-up finish.

Sean also wrestles on the international stage. He wrestled in Mongolia with Athletes In Action and was a member of the 2013 U.S. Cadet Freestyle World Team, finishing ninth in the 58-kilogram class at the World Championships in Serbia. Sean also ran cross country for two years and has committed to wrestle at North Carolina State.

SPORT: Wrestling

GRADUATING YEAR: 2014

GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT:

9th at FILA Cadet World Freestyle Championships

BIRTHDATE: 5/2/96

HEIGHT: 5'8"-140 lbs.

RESIDENCE: Alexandria, Ky.

PARENTS: Andy & Janie

BIGGEST INFLUENCE: Nate Carr

FUTURE GOAL:

NCAA DI national champion

"Sean is the complete package as an athlete, giving 110% everyday in and out of season. He leads our team by example with his strong work ethic, forcing anyone who practices with him to increase their level of play." – Mike Bankemper, Wrestling Coach

March 18, 2014