

Zach Logue

Moeller High School

A two year varsity starter for the #1 ranked team in Ohio, Moeller pitcher/outfielder Zach Logue is a preseason honorable mention All-American. Zach was a big part of the 32-2 Crusaders' Ohio state title last season, the Crusaders' 2nd straight state title and 7th overall. Their 32 wins set a school record, and USA Today ranked the team 17th nationally.

On the mound last season, Zach went 8-1 with a 1.12 ERA and 56 strikeouts in 56 innings pitched. He also hit .455 with 25 RBI, 26 runs and 13 stolen bases and was named 1st team all-GCL and 1st team all-city. He has committed to play at the University of Kentucky.

A high honors student active in community service, Zach also played ice hockey his sophomore year.

His favorite athlete and most-like-to-meet is Peyton Manning, favorite entertainer is Florida Georgia Line, favorite book is The Shining, and favorite movie is Miracle.

SPORT: Baseball
GRADUATING YEAR: 2014
GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT:
Winning state in 2013
BIRTHDATE: 4/23/96
HEIGHT: 6'-170 lbs.
RESIDENCE: Mason
PARENTS: Russ & Jennifer
BIGGEST INFLUENCE:
"My dad."
FUTURE GOAL:
Play professional baseball

*"Zach has worked tremendously hard on the field and in the classroom to make him one of the top student-athletes in our school."
-- Tim Held, Baseball Coach*

April 15, 2014