LaRosa's MVP of the Week

LAROSAS MVP.COM

Alexis Switzer

Boone County High School

A four-year basketball starter at guard and two-time team captain, Alexis Switzer entering her senior season had already scored 1,000+ points in her great career, and ranks in the top 10 in scoring all-time for the Lady Rebels.

She has had big games this year, including vs. Campbell County (25 points), St. Albans (24) and Dixie Heights (22). Her junior year for the 2014 district champs, Alexis averaged 14 ppg.-6 rpg. and earned numerous honors. She was the 33rd District MVP and a 1st team all-NKY all-star.

In last season's NKY Junior East-West all-star game, Alexis scored 29 points, leading the East team to victory and was named MVP of the game. She also was the only player from Northern Kentucky named to the Kentucky state junior all-star team.

Alexis is the youngest of four Switzer sisters, and two older sisters also played basketball for the Lady Rebels. Active in community service, Alexis is a super student (4.29 GPA) and is a member of National Honor Society.

SPORT: Basketball
GRADUATING YEAR: 2015
GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT: Only player from NKY to make last season's state Junior All-Star team
BIRTHDATE: 3/9/97
RESIDENCE: Florence, Ky.
PARENTS: Matt & Vida
BIGGEST INFLUENCE: "My mother."
FUTURE GOAL: Attend college, major in political science/pre-law, become a lawyer.

"Alexis is a complete player... a strong, physical guard, tenacious competitor and great team leader who leaves it all on the floor when she plays!"

-Nell Fookes, Basketball Coach

March 10, 2015