

Ally Johnson

Beechwood High School

A five-year varsity starter in basketball, Beechwood senior Ally Johnson has scored 2,000+ points in her great varsity career. She is having another great season this year with many double-digit games, including scoring 34 points vs. Dayton, 29 points vs. Harrison County and 27 points vs. Lloyd.

The all-star point guard surpassed 1,000 career points' plateau her sophomore year, and entering this season, she already had scored 1,643 career points, including 251 three-pointers.

Her junior year, Ally averaged 18.1 points per game and earned numerous honors, including being named 1st team all-9th Region, named to the all-tournament team of the Regional All "A" Classic and the District championships and was 1st team all-NKY (Enquirer). She has been named by Northern Kentucky Basketball Coaches as a Div. II all-star four times. This season, she was recently named to the all-tournament team of the 9th Region All "A" Classic.

Ally will play collegiately at Bucknell University. She is also a cross country all-star who twice was named to the all-state team. And, she is a stellar academic student who is active in community service.
