

Alec Pfriem

Moeller High School

Moeller senior Alec Pfriem is an all-star basketball player for the top ranked high school team in Ohio. He is currently averaging about 15 points per game, leading the GCL South conference, as the undefeated Crusaders, who have not lost a conference game since February, 2016, are bidding to become the first Div. I team in Cincinnati to win back-to-back state championships.

Alec has had several big games this season, including hitting for 25 points vs. Lakota East to help the Crusaders win the Midwest King Classic tournament. Other top games include wins against two defending state champion teams – St. Vincent-St. Mary (22 points) and Covington Catholic (20 points). He scored 23 vs. Springfield and 20 vs. Hughes.

Alec was an integral part of Moeller's magical 27-3 Ohio state championship run last season, averaging 9.7 points- 6.5 rebounds and six assists per game, helping the Crusaders capture their fourth basketball state title. He was named 1st team GCL-South, honorable all-city and third team all-SWO District.

Alec played his freshman and sophomore seasons at Roger Bacon, where he earned first-team all-conference honors as a sophomore, when the Spartans finished as Ohio state Div. iii runners-up.

A great student who is very active in community service, Alec will play basketball collegiately at Bellarmine University.

His favorite athlete is Devin Booker, favorite entertainer is Will Ferrell, favorite book is The Maze Runner, favorite movie is Step Brothers and most-like-to-meet is Kobe Bryant.
