

MVP Featured Athlete

LAROSAS
MVP.COM

Sean Kelly Darks

Walnut Hills High School

Walnut Hills' senior Sean Kelly Darks is a four-year varsity basketball player at guard for the high-flying Lady Eagles, winners of three straight ECC championships.

She has started this season strong, leading the league in scoring, averaging about 19 points per game. In the opening game vs. Seton, she tallied 24 points and went over 1,000 points scored in her great career. She also has scored 28 points vs. Withrow, 22 vs. Mercy McAuley, 21 vs. Fairfield (with 10 rebounds) and 19 vs. both Kings and Turpin.

Her junior year, Sean Kelly led the ECC in scoring, averaging 17.8 points per game, with 2.7 assists per game, and 2.9 steals per game. She was named ECC Player of the Year, 1st team all-ECC for the second time, 1st team all-city, 1st team all-SWO District and honorable mention all-Ohio.

A great academic student and member of National Honor Society, Sean Kelly also plays for the Cincinnati Phenom club team. She will play basketball collegiately next season at North Carolina A&T.

Her favorite athlete is Kobe Bryant, favorite entertainer is Beyonce, favorite book is the Harry Potter series, favorite movie is Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire and most-like-to-meet is Will Smith.

NAME: Sean Kelly Darks

GRADUATING YEAR: 2020

SCHOOL: Walnut Hills High School

SPORT: Basketball

BIRTHDATE: 4/1/02

PARENTS: Sean & Ericka

HEIGHT: 5'10"-160 lbs.

INFLUENCE: "My sister Taylor."

FUTURE GOAL: Orthopedic surgeon

"Sean Kelly is the ultimate winner in life. She comes from a tremendous family and is successful in everything she does."

- Adam Lazar, Basketball Coach

January 14, 2020