

Logan Duncomb

Moeller High School

In its preseason basketball poll, The Enquirer selected Moeller senior Logan Duncomb as one of the top players to watch in Greater Cincinnati this season. Logan then went on to a superb senior campaign with double-digit scoring games vs. Walnut Hills (21 points), St. Vincent-St. Mary (24 points), Centerville (24 points) and Princeton (18 points). He delivered a strong 19 point performance vs. Miamisburg in a game that won the Crusaders' a district championship. The Crusaders finished as regional runners-up with a 20-5 record.

Logan finished the season averaging 13.3 points per game while shooting 59.9 percent from the field. He led the GCL South in rebounding (nine per game), and also was third in blocked shots (1.2 per game). He was named GCL South Co-Player of the Year and was nominated for the prestigious McDonald's All-American all-star game.

His junior year, Logan averaged 14.2 points-8.4 rebounds per game, as Moeller was a Division I regional finalist with a 26-1 record in 2019-20 before the boys' basketball tournament was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Logan was named first team GCL South, first team all-city (Enquirer), first team SWO district and third team all-Ohio. He was also a finalist for Cincinnati.com sports award's big school Player of the Year.

The big man (6'10"), was a major part of the Crusaders' winning the Ohio state championship his sophomore year, the program's fifth state basketball title, when he led the GCL South in blocked shots with 23 on the season. The team went an undefeated 29-0.

A great student (4.58 GPA) who is active in community service, Logan, who had numerous college offers, will play basketball collegiately at Indiana University. He also plays for the Indiana Elite club team.

His favorite athlete is Jimmy Butler, favorite entertainer is Lil Uzi Vert, favorite book is Where the Red Fern Grows, favorite movie is Talladega Nights and most-like-to-meet is Abraham Lincoln.
