The Raiders went 6-6 last year, losing in the second round of the Class 6A state playoffs.

"Logan has not only grown as a football player, but also as a leader and student of the game. The one thing that stands out is the fire and enthusiasm he has in everything he does. He leads by example and is relentless as a player and student," says his head varsity football coach, Mike Engler.

Logan also plays basketball for the Raiders. He plans on playing football at the next level, but has not yet made a college commitment. In his spare time, he enjoys fishing and collecting sports cards. The same work ethic that has made him a success on the field and in the classroom can be seen in many other ways and activities. Logan's teammates have also honored him by selecting him to the Raider Council, as well as a team captain for the past three seasons. He is a positive role model for all the community and at Ryle High School."
