Kristina Eisenmenger

Senior Kristina Eisenmenger helped lead the Pandas (32-9) to the volleyball 9th region championship and state runner-up spot last year, and this season her goal is a state title. A 4-year starter, Kristina last season had 205 kills and 52 solo blocks, and earned 1st team all-Northern Kentucky and 2nd team all-state honors. She also was named to the all-tournament teams of the district and regional championships. An academic honor student active in community service, Kristina was a member of the Cincy Classics AAU team that won the 2003 USA Junior Olympics national championship in Atlanta. This year, her 11 kills-7 blocks helped the Pandas beat Ohio's defending Division I state champion, St. Ursula Academy. Her favorite entertainer is Toby Keith; her favorite athlete is USA volleyballer Logan Tom and her most-like-to-meet is George Bush.
