

LaRosa's MVP of the Week

LAROSAS MVP.COM

Robby Schoenhof

St. Xavier QB Robby Schoenhof is ranked as the #4 high school quarterback in the nation by Rivals.com, and the 6'6" senior, who battled an ankle injury early in the season, came back strong in a 35-31 win over previously undefeated Moeller, completing 11 of 18 passes for 143 yards-2 TDs and also rushing for 1 TD. He has already signed to play next season at Ohio State University, and the Buckeyes are likely glad that Robby was named at this summer's EA Sports Elite 11 Camp as "the most likely to win a college football championship." Also a good basketball player, the center-forward averaged 10 rebounds a game as a junior and was named 2nd team all-conference. His summer Cincinnati AAU team finished 6th in the nation at the AAU national tournament. His favorite entertainer is Denzel Washington and favorite athlete is Peyton Manning.

"Aside from being given a tremendous amount of God-given talent, Robby is a quality human being. He has a tremendous arm, quick release and the size to be a special QB at any level. His work ethic is exceptional and he will continue to improve because of it.." – Steve Specht, Football Coach
