

LaRosa's MVP of the Week

LAROSAS MVP.COM

Kristine Stelzer

Senior three-sport athlete who, as a basketball forward, was named as a Northern Kentucky All-Star last season, averaging 12.3 points-8.2 rebounds a game for the 16-3 Colonels. Big games included 27 points vs. Bellevue, 26 vs. Newport and 20 points each vs. Dayton and Grant County. She was named to the all-tournament teams of the Dixie Heights and Villa Madonna Invationals. In fast-pitch, this first baseman hit .379 and helped lead the Colonels to back-to-back regional championships. She was named to the regional all-tournament team and twice has been named 1st team all-conference. Kristine was also a 4-year varsity golfer for the Colonels. She is active in community service in the DARE program, and as yet has not committed to a college for next year. Her favorite entertainer is Brad Pitt, favorite athlete is Jennie Fitch and her most-like-to-meet is Lisa Fernandez.

Coach's Quote -- "Kristine is a competitive individual. She works hard to develop her individual and team skills. Kristine is part of a dying breed--the successful multi-sport athlete." -- Holly Spritzky, Basketball Coach
