Cameron Satterwhite

A senior centerfielder, wearing jersey #20, Cameron Satterwhite was one of many stars to help lead the Crusaders last year to a 28-3 record and the Ohio Division I state championship. Cameron had an outstanding season, batting .393 with 34 RBIs and scoring 32 runs. A three-year starter, Cameron has a varsity career average of .365 with 54 RBIs and 50 runs scored. He also has set a school record for the longest hitting streak, 26 games. Last season, Cameron was named as the league's MVP and was also named 1st team all-city. A good academic student, Cameron plays for the Cincinnati Bulldogs during the summer, and he will play on scholarship in the Fall at Indiana University. Active in community service as a youth minister at his church, Cameron's favorite athlete is Reggie Jackson, and his most-like-to-meet is Cincinnati Reds outfielder Ken Griffey Jr., also a Moeller grad.

Coach's Quote: "Cameron has had one goal since he came to Moeller, to play professional baseball. In order to achieve his dream, he has worked extremely hard in the off-season to build up his strength, speed, quickness and baseball skills. Cameron is a team leader on and off the field and has the ability to make others around him better. He is a quality person with great baseball skills." - Mike Cameron, Baseball Coach
