Robbie Aylor

Ryle High School

This senior state champ is a 4-year starter on the Raiders' wrestling team, and so far has compiled nearly 140 wins during his impressive varsity career.

Last year, Robbie went 43-7 while winning the conference, regional and Kentucky state championships in the 140 lb. class. He finished 3rd at state in 112 lbs. his freshman year. His sophomore year, he was regional runner-up and 4th at state in 125 lbs., compiling a 39-6 record. Of his 43 wins last season as a junior, 22 were by pins. This season, wrestling at 145 lbs., Robbie finished 1st in the Greater Miami Valley Wrestling Association Tournament, 3rd in the NKAC tournament and 2nd in the regionals. Active in community service, Robbie's favorite entertainer is Mike Jones, his favorite athlete is Brett Favre and his most-like-to-meet is Tara Reid. He will attend the University of Kentucky in the fall, but will not wrestle at the next level.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Rob's work ethic and determination set him above the crowd. He understands that when you work hard good things happen. He is a fine, up-standing young man."
- Tim Ruschell, Wrestling Coach
