Chris Curley

Beechwood High School

This senior 3rd baseman-pitcher overcame adversity to put together a great junior baseball season last year. Prior to the baseball season, in football he rushed for over 1,000 yards (averaging over 6 yards per carry) and 20 TDs before breaking his leg during the Tigers' state playoff run. Nevertheless, during baseball he hit .524 (49 RBIs) and led NKY with 13 home runs. He was named to the district and regional all-tournament teams, was named 1st team all-Northern Kentucky and was named to the Kentucky State Junior All-Star Team. As a pitcher, he went 6-2 with an 0.98 ERA.

Chris also played 3 years of basketball for Beechwood. During the summer he plays baseball for the Kentucky Colonels, and plans to play at the collegiate level, but has not yet committed to a college. His favorite entertainer is Tom Cruise, his favorite athlete is Tony Gwynn, and his most-like-to-meet is Tiger Woods.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Along with his outstanding physical talents, Chris has the mental toughness to overcome adversity; he has the strength of character to meet challengers head on, and he is a tough competitor." – Bob Myerhoff, Baseball Coach
