Sydney Hiance

Highlands High School

This senior goalkeeper last year helped lead her team to a 24-2 record and the Kentucky state championship, a 1-0 shutout win over Lexington Catholic. In a season to remember, Sydney and the Bluebirds set a state high school record for shutouts in a season with 20, and allowed only 7 goals all season long! She was named MVP of the state tournament, and has more than 120 saves and 35 shutouts in her great prep career. Sydney last year was named to the all-district, all-region and all-state tournament teams as well as being named 1st team all-state and N. Ky. Player of the Year. A National Honor Society student who is active in community service, Sydney's favorite entertainers are Adam Sandler and Jennifer Aniston, her favorite athlete is David Beckham and her most-like-to-meet is Johnny Depp. Sydney will continue her stellar soccer play next year at the University of Kentucky.
