Margaret Fish

Indian Hill High School

This senior is a swimming All-American who earned 4 Ohio state Div. II championships! Her freshman year, Margaret was part of Indian Hill's state-winning 200 freestyle relay team, and last season, as a junior, she won the individual Ohio title in both the 100 backstroke and the 200 individual medley, and she won the 200 IM again this year. She was named last year 1st team all-city (for the 3rd time) and Cincinnati Div. II Swimmer of the Year. Active in community service, Margaret is an outstanding student, with a 4.54 GPA and is an Academic All-American. With a goal of making the USA Olympic team in the future, Margaret will take her studies and athletic abilities next year to Harvard University. Her favorite athlete is Ryan Lochte, favorite entertainer is the Dave Matthews Band, favorite book is Six Easy Pieces, favorite movie is Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants and most-like-to-meet is Albert Einstein.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Margaret is an outstanding example of what excellence in all things means: she excels in leadership and academics as well as swimming."
-- Dave Coffman, Swimming Coach
