

Steve McFarland

Boone County High School

This 6'5" senior is one of Kentucky's finest basketball players. Last season, Steve averaged 11.2 points, 7 rebounds, 4 assists per game for the 21-8 Rebels. Top games included 17 points, 12 rebounds, 7 assists vs. South Laurel, 17 points vs. both Corbin and Ryle, and 14 points, 10 rebounds, 9 assists vs. Newport Central Catholic. He was named to the district all-tournament team for the second time and was named as a NKAC Div. I all-star during his sophomore year (avg. 15.1 ppg, 7 rpg, 4 apg). During the summer, Steve played on the Kentucky 17U AAU team that won the Kentucky state championship. A top student-athlete with a 3.9 GPA, Steve is active in community service, and he will play next season at Georgetown College. His favorite athlete and most-like-to-meet is Michael Jordan; his favorite entertainer is Jessica Alba, his favorite book is Tuck Everlasting and his favorite movie is Saw.

Steve McFarland

Boone County High School

SPORT(S): Basketball

GRADUATING YEAR: 2009

GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT:
AAU KY state championship; full scholarship to Georgetown College

BIRTHDATE: 7-16-90

HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 6'5"-190 lbs

RESIDENCE: Florence, KY

PARENTS: Donnie & Cindy

BIGGEST INFLUENCE:
David "DMac" McFarland (brother)

FUTURE GOAL: Win 9th Region title

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Steve McFarland's basketball abilities, as well as his classroom performance, have enabled him to have a successful high school career and earn a college scholarship to Georgetown College." -- Greg McQueary, Basketball Coach

December 23, 2008