

Jacy Bradley

Boone County

This senior point guard is a McDonalds High School All-American nominee who the Louisville Courier Journal named as the 9th region's top player in a pre-season poll. Jacy has been playing varsity since the 8th grade and last year, as a junior, averaged 14 points and 5 assists a game for the district champs. She has continued her great play this season with games against Purcell Marian (26 points), Notre Dame Academy (21 points) and Newport Catholic (20 points). Jacy holds the school's single game and career record in assists and has scored 1,100+ points in her fine career. Her talent has been recognized numerous times, including last season being named District MVP, 1st team all-NKY and MVP of the East-West Junior All-Star game. Active in community service, Jacy will play next year at Saint Louis University. "Basketball is my passion," says Jacy, "but I will put down the basketball anytime I get the opportunity to go fishing."

Jacy Bradley

Boone County

SPORT(S): Basketball

GRADUATING YEAR: 2009

GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT:
Signing to play basketball for
Saint Louis University

BIRTHDATE: 9-27-91

HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 5'6"-135 lbs.

RESIDENCE: Florence, KY

PARENTS: Tim & Rosa

BIGGEST INFLUENCE: "My father"

FUTURE GOAL: "To get a valuable college degree and leave my legacy at Saint Louis University"

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Jacy is an outstanding basketball talent and has accomplished some great things during her high school career, but it is her superior work ethic, her passion for the game, and her drive to be the very best that separates her from the rest." -- Nell Fookes, Basketball Coach