

Jordan Sibert

Princeton High School

This senior is a nationally rated shooting guard (McDonalds All-American nominee) who helped lead last year's Vikings' squad to a 25-2 record as

Princeton went undefeated in the GMC and finished as the Ohio state Div. I runner-up. Jordan averaged 12 ppg. as a sophomore and 16 ppg. last season when he was named 1st team all-city, 2nd team SWO district and honorable mention all-state. He is leading the GMC in scoring average this season, and scored a single-game school record 36 points vs. Middletown, on the same night joining the career 1,000-point club. An honor roll student active in community service, Jordan likes to draw in his spare time. His favorite athlete is Kobe Bryant, favorite entertainer is T.I., favorite movie is I am Legend, favorite book is 48 Laws of Power and most-like to meet is Jay-Z. Jordan will play next season at Ohio State University.

Jordan Sibert

Princeton High School

SPORT(S): Basketball

GRADUATING YEAR: 2010

GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT: Full basketball scholarship to OSU

BIRTHDATE: 8-1-92

HEIGHT/Weight: 6'4"-185 lbs.

RESIDENCE: Sharonville

PARENTS: Scott & Sheila

BIGGEST INFLUENCE: Grandfather Curtis Sibert

FUTURE GOAL: Degree in Communications, NBA

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Jordan approaches his basketball development and school work with a mature perspective. He continues to put in time and energy toward being his best." -- Josh Andrews, Basketball Coach