An All-American track star, Ashley and her running mates won 2 Ohio State championships (800 relay & 1,600 relay) in 2008, setting city records in each event. She was also the 2009 Ohio state runner-up in the 400 dash. At the 2007 Nike Outdoor National Championships she and her 1,600 relay teammates ran a 3:37.87, the fastest time in Cincinnati girls' history. Ashley holds numerous school, conference, city, district and state track records and has received many honors, including being named 1st team all-city 3 times and, along with her running mates, was named a 2008 Track Sportswoman of the Year by the local Women's Sports Association. Also an all-star soccer player, Ashley has won several honors, including Team MVP, 1st team all-conference and 1st team all-city. A CPS scholar-athlete active in community service, Ashley's favorite athletes are Jeremy Wariner and LeBron James, favorite entertainers are Lil Wayne, Drake and Beyonce, and most-like-to-meet is President Barack Obama.
