

Alex Barlow

Moeller High School

Moeller senior Alex Barlow is a 2-sport star in baseball & basketball. His junior year in baseball, Alex hit a league-leading .532 (32 RBIs, 34 runs scored) for the 29-2 GCL champs, sectional champs, district champs and state semi-finalist. At one point, he helped the Crusaders produce a school-record 27 straight victories. Alex earned numerous honors, including 1st team GCL, 1st team all-city and 2nd team all-state. Also a basketball star, Alex averaged 9

ppg. for a 22-3 Crusaders team that was GCL co-champs, sectional champs, district champs and regional runners-up. Top games included scoring 21 vs. Northmont, 16 vs. Elder and 14 vs. St. Xavier. He was named 1st team GCL South, 2nd team SWO district and honorable mention All-Ohio. He was also named GCL Defensive Player of the Year and 1st team all-city as a junior.

An honors student active in community service, Alex's favorite athlete is Tyler Hansbrough and most-like-to-meet is LeBron James.

Alex Barlow

Moeller High School

SPORT(S): Basketball-Baseball

GRADUATING YEAR: 2011

GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT: "Finals in basketball and Final 4 in baseball in 2010."

BIRTHDATE: 7-3-92

HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 5'11"-185 lbs.

RESIDENCE: Springboro

PARENTS: Tom & Tami

BIGGEST INFLUENCE: "My parents"

FUTURE GOAL: "Play college basketball"

COACH'S QUOTE - "Alex is a competitor in and out of the classroom. He strives to play at a high level and to help his teammates get there also." - Tim Held, Baseball Coach.

April 12, 2011