

Erika LaRosa

Seton High School

Since the class of 1987, LaRosa's has honored area high school student-athletes with the LaRosa's MVP program. And what better way to kick off this year's 2012-2013 program than with... a LaRosa! Specifically, Seton senior all-star soccer competitor Erika LaRosa, daughter of LaRosa's CEO Michael LaRosa (and granddaughter of LaRosa's founder Buddy LaRosa).

A center midfielder, Erika is a 4-year starter and a team Tri-captain, who last season was named team MVP, 1st team all-conference and 1st team all-city. Erika is also an academic all-star, named Academic all-SWO district and all-Ohio, and is a National Honor Society student-athlete. She is also a Student Council member and a member of Seton's executive board and Pep President. Very active in community service, Erika will continue her soccer career on scholarship next year at the University of Cincinnati.

Her favorite athletes are Tim Tebow and David Silva, favorite entertainer is Carrie Underwood, favorite book is Left to Tell by Immaculee Ilibagiza, favorite movie is Remember the Titans and most-like-to-meet is Abby Wambach.
