

Kayla McDowell

Mason High School

A 4-year varsity starter, senior Kayla McDowell has 1,000+ points in her great career. This season, she has had double-digit games vs. Lakota East (26 points), Fairfield (25), Middletown (24) and McAuley (23).

Kayla averaged 13.7 ppg.-8 rpg. last season, helping the Comets (18-7) to the sectional and district championships and a regional runner-up finish. She was named 1st team GMC, 1st team all-city and special mention all-SWO District. She also played 2 years of volleyball for the Comets.

An academic honors student, Kayla is active in community service, and she has committed to the University of Missouri for basketball. She plays for the Cincinnati Angels during the summer. Kayla joins both older brother Quinn (Moeller, 2008) and sister Breann (Ursuline, 2010) as LaRosa's MVP nominees.

Her favorite athlete is Tim Tebow, favorite entertainer is Taylor Swift, favorite book is Love Does, favorite movie is Pitch Perfect and most-like-to-meet is author Bob Goff.

SPORT: Basketball

GRADUATING YEAR: 2013

GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT:

2012 regional finalists, back-to-back district championships

BIRTHDATE: 11/4/94

HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 6'2"-165 lbs.

RESIDENCE: Mason

PARENTS: Dave & Jenn

BIGGEST INFLUENCE: Sister Breann, swimmer at U. of Louisville

FUTURE GOAL:

Win a state championship

"Kayla, without a doubt, is the hardest working player I have had in my 25 years of coaching. She has worked endless hours, individually, to be the best all the while being a great leader."

— Rob Matula, Basketball Coach

January 29, 2013