

Olivia Voskuhl

Notre Dame Academy

A 2-sport all-star and a 4-year varsity basketball starter, Olivia Voskuhl experienced a special moment in her great career when she scored her landmark 1,000th career point on her dad's birthday in a victory over Madison Southern.

Her junior year, Olivia averaged 13.5 ppg.-6.3 rpg. for the district champs and was named 1st team all-NKY (Enquirer), district tournament MVP and was named to the regional all-tournament team.

She also played 4 years of soccer as a goalie, helping the Pandas (25-3-1) this past season to a state runner-up finish, and the Kentucky state championship in 2011. This past season, Olivia was key in the Pandas' 20 shutouts that set a school record and tied a state record. She was named 1st team NKY, 1st team all-region and 2nd team East all-state.

Olivia has committed to Cleveland State University to play basketball. Her favorite athlete is Candace Parker, favorite movie is The Lucky One and most-like-to-meet is Justin Bieber.
