

Blake Tiberi

Holy Cross

Holy Cross senior all-star Blake Tiberi is the first player in Northern Kentucky prep baseball history – and the 16th player in Kentucky state history – to achieve 200 career hits.

A 4-year varsity starter, entering this season he had a remarkable career .500 batting average. His junior year, he led Northern Kentucky with a .559 average with 34 RBIs, and as a pitcher he went 4-2 with a 2.47 ERA.

Blake has earned numerous honors, including being named all-conference and all-region 3 straight years. He was also last season's NKY Div. II Player of the Year and was selected to play in the Kentucky Junior All-Star Game. He was also selected to play in the USA Tournament of Stars in North Carolina and played in the East Coast Prospect Showcase in Syracuse, NY.

Active in community service (100+ hours), Blake will play baseball next year at the University of Louisville. His favorite athlete is Josh Hamilton and most-like-to-meet is Jackie Robinson.
