

Drew Houliston

Highlands High School

Senior quarterback Drew Houliston led Highlands to a 13-2 record and a Kentucky Class 4A state runner-up finish this season.

On the season, he threw for an impressive 4,027 yards (9th in state history) and 50 TDs (11th in state history). He remarkably achieved these numbers despite missing a game with an injury and frequently played only half of a game because the Bluebirds were so far ahead on the scoreboard. The Kentucky Football Coaches Association named him Class 4A district Player of the Year, with additional honors certain to follow.

Drew is also an honorable mention all-NKY basketball player, who averaged 11.2 points and 3.4 rebounds per game last year. He notched big games vs. Seven Hills (29 points), Dixie Heights (23 points) and Bracken County (19 points).

Drew is a National Honor Society student and is active in community service. His favorite athlete is LeBron James and his most-like-to-meet is Drew Brees.
