

Brandon Hatton

Dixie Heights High School

A 5-year varsity starter at shooting guard for the defending District 34 champs, senior Brandon Hatton has had several big games, including those against Henderson County (34 points), Campbell County (29), Holmes (23), and Louisville St. Xavier (22).

His 2,365 career points entering his senior season are already a school record and 2nd in NKY prep history to Highlands' legend Scott Draud. He also holds the school record for rebounds (429) entering his senior season.

Last year Brandon made 70 3-pointers and averaged 24 ppg. and was named Northern Kentucky Coaches Association Division I Player of the Year and NKAC Division I Player of the Year.

Brandon has earned numerous other honors, including being named 2nd team all-state three times, being named to the 9th region all-tournament team four times and was selected to play in last year's NKY Junior All-Star Game.

Brandon has committed to the University of Vermont. His favorite athlete and most-like-to-meet is LeBron James.
