

MVP Featured Athlete

LAROSAS
MVP.COM

Ryan Moore

Walton-Verona High School

A four-year varsity wrestler and one of Northern Kentucky's most decorated, Ryan Moore is leaving quite an athletic legacy at Walton-Verona High School. Ryan is a wrestling All-American and the only two-time Kentucky state wrestling champion in school history.

Ryan had an undefeated senior year, going 47-0 in matches, thus becoming the first wrestler in school history to go the entire season undefeated. He won the regional and Kentucky state championships in the 132 lb. weight class. It was the fourth regional title for Ryan and his second straight Kentucky state title. He helped the Bearcats win its first regional wrestling team title in school history.

For his career, Ryan had a remarkable 199-15 record with 132 pins. This past season, he was MVP of the 6th Region Championships and he is a finalist for Cincinnati.com Sports Awards' Wrestler of the Year.

A good student, Ryan will wrestle collegiately at Cornell University. His favorite athlete is Kyle Dake, favorite entertainer is Drake, favorite movie is The Waterboy and most-like-to-meet is Russell M. Nelson

NAME: Ryan Moore
GRADUATING YEAR: 2018
SCHOOL: Walton-Verona High
GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT:
Two-time state champion
HEIGHT: 5'6" - 145 lbs.
RESIDENCE: Crittenden, Ky.
BIRTHDATE: 3/25/2000
PARENTS: Jason & Amber
FUTURE GOAL: NCAA All-American

"Ryan is a 'Coach's Wrestler'. He works extremely hard both on the mat and in the classroom. He is one of those kids that you don't have to worry about doing the wrong things. His presence in the wrestling room makes everyone else better. He understands and recognizes areas he needs to work on and he goes out and does it. He is a coachable wrestler!"

– John Roth, Wrestling Coach

April 24, 2018