Will Pfennig

Mason High School

A three-year varsity starter in baseball, Mason pitcher Will Pfennig had a senior season to remember for the 26-6 Comets who were GMC, District and Regional champs, and an Ohio state semifinalist.

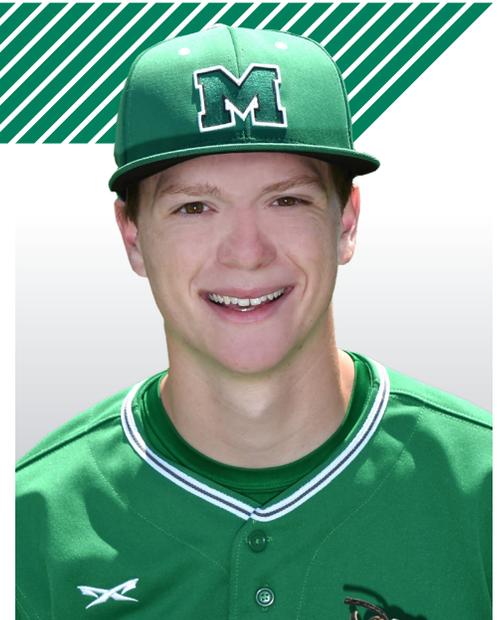

On the mound, Will notched a 9-1 record with a school-record 115 strikeouts in 66 2/3 innings of work. He also had three shutouts and a 1.16 ERA. He was named GMC and Cincinnati Pitcher of the Year and was 2nd team all-state.

Will had numerous big games. In the district semifinals, Will beat Oak Hills 4-1, pitching a complete game 1-hitter, striking out 11 batters while allowing just one unearned run. He then threw a three-hitter with nine strikeouts in a 3-2 regional semifinals' win vs. Centerville.

His junior year, he went 6-2 on the mound with 47 strikeouts in 36.2 innings pitched and had a 3.06 ERA. He earned 2nd team all-GMC honors.

A Cum Laude student with a 4.45 GPA, Will is active in community service and will play collegiately at The Ohio State University, where he plans to major in chemical engineering.

His favorite athlete is Bartolo Colon, favorite entertainer is Kenny Chesney, favorite book is Lone Survivor, favorite movie is Star Wars and most-like-to-meet is LeBron James.
