Brennan Callow

Seven Hills School

A two-time team captain and four-year varsity starter, Seven Hills' senior soccer star Brennan Callow has garnered prestigious national attention.

A center back, Brennan was named to the USA Today/American Family Insurance All-USA preseason team and was on the TopDrawerSoccer All-American Watch List. He also was named to the U.S. Youth Soccer National Championships' Best XI team.

For the MVC co-champs and Sectional and District champs, Brennan is once again leading the conference through 16 games in goals (24) and points (56). He also has eight assists.

Brennan this season has had numerous multi-goal games for the Stingers. He scored three-goal hat tricks vs. Cincinnati Christian and Norwood and scored two goals in games against Mariemont, Franklin Monroe, Clark Montessori, New Richmond and Miami Valley.

His junior year for the District runners-up, Brennan scored a league-leading 28 goals and had nine assists, accounting for an MVC-leading 65 points. He was named 1st team all-conference, 1st team all-city Div. III (Enquirer), 1st team Southwest Ohio District and 1st team all-state. He was also a nominee for Cincinnati.com Sports' Awards Soccer MVP of the Year. His club team is Cincinnati United Premier 01 Gold team.

A great student who is active in community service, Brennan also played two years of basketball for the Stingers. He will play soccer collegiately at the University of Michigan.

His favorite athlete and most-like-to-meet is LeBron James, favorite entertainer is Will Smith, favorite book is Percy Jackson: The Last Olympian and favorite movie is Inception.
