Zeke Correll

Anderson High School

Anderson senior big man Zeke Correll is one of the top linemen in the country and in preseason was listed as the top offensive guard in Ohio's '19 class by 247sports.com.

His junior year, he had 62 knockdown blocks and a 99.3 pass block efficiency. He earned numerous awards, including being named 1st team ECC, 1st team all-city Div. II (Enquirer) and 1st team all-state. He was also the Anthony Munoz Foundation Offensive Lineman of the Year and will play in January in the Under Armour All-American Game in Orlando.

The Correll name is well known on Anderson's gridiron. Zeke's four older brothers (Gabe, Caleb, Jesse and Josh) all played football for the Redskins.

One of the most highly recruited linemen in the country, Zeke has selected to play football collegiately at the University of Notre Dame.

A great student (4.0 GPA) who is active in community service, his favorite athlete is AJ Green, favorite entertainer is Denzel Washington, favorite book is The Outsiders, favorite movie is Remember the Titans, and most-like-to-meet is Donald Trump.
