

Amy Klocke

Bishop Brossart High School

One of Northern Kentucky's successful runners is Bishop Brossart senior Amy Klocke, who is part of a tradition-rich Mustang running program that has won eight Kentucky state team titles in track and three state team titles in cross country.

Amy individually has won two Kentucky state championships in track. She was a member of the 2001 and 2002 varsity track teams that won the Kentucky state title in the 4x800 relay events. She also is a track school record-holder in the 2,000 meter steeplechase event (7:58.98). This season, the Brossart team is striving to win a third straight Kentucky Class 1A state track championship. Amy recently won the regional championship in the 3200 run, helping her team win a third straight Class 1A regional title.

Additionally, Amy is a great competitor in cross country. In 2019, she won the regional championship in cross country in 20:20 and she was regional runner-up in 2022 (20:55). She was Kentucky state runner-up in 2020 (20:05), finishing third in 2022 (19:36). That year she was named first-team all-region for the fourth straight year.

An honor student who is active in community service, Amy will be attending the University of Kentucky next year. Her favorite athlete is Joe Burrow, favorite entertainer and most-like-to-meet is Taylor Swift, favorite book is Where the Crawdads Sing and favorite movie is Forrest Gump
